

RELOCATION OF LARGE AFRICAN MAMMALS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Fairall, N.: Principles of habitat evaluation for the re-introduction of large mammals ...	1
Delport, W., Alais, M.A., Grant, T.J., Swartz, E.R. &amp; Bloomer, P.: Conservation genetics and translocations: an integrated approach to management	4
Raath, J.P.: An update on drugs involved in the introduction of large African mammals into wilderness/conservation areas.....	10
Kooy, H.: Transportation requirements for African mammals.....	14
Hofmeyr, M.: “Operation Phoenix” – the introduction of larger mammals to a South African game reserve .....	17
Emslie, R.H.: Black rhino management for private landowners in South Africa: an introductory “rhino management group” guide. ....	24
Emslie, R.H.: Status and recent trends in African rhino numbers .....	35
Lloyd, P.H.: Cape mountain zebra conservation success: an historical perspective ..	39
Vrahimis, S.: Black wildebeest ( Connochaetes gnou ) conservation success: an historical perspective .....	42
Lloyd, P.H.: Bontebok conservation success: an historical perspective.....	46
du Toit, J.G.: Introduction of elephant family units on game ranches and reserves in South Africa.....	50
van Hoven, W. &amp; du Toit, J.G.: Airlifting elephant families to Angola.....	54
Keet, D.F.: Mass-capture, transport and release of lions ( Panthera leo ).....	58
Hofmeyr, M.: Introduction of the African wild dog ( Lycaon pictus ) to game reserves ..	64