

SASOL Symposium on WILDLIFE REHABILITATION

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Trendler, K. Minimum operating guidelines for rehabilitation centres.....	1
Carr, R.D. The role of nature conservation organisations in wildlife rehabilitation centres	5
Trendler, R. The financial implications of wildlife rehabilitation	9
Kunz, A. Management of a rehabilitation centre.....	12
Russell, M. Establishing a volunteer programme for wildlife rehabilitation	17
Penzhorn, B.L. Training veterinarians for wildlife rehabilitation	23
Roos, W. The specialisation and coordination of volunteers	27
Lockwood, G. Animal rehabilitation - involving the community	33
Russell, M. Managing media for wildlife rehabilitation	36
Dyer, G. The role the farmer plays in wildlife rehabilitation	40
Hugo, E. and Dreyer, M. The use of birds unsuitable for release for the rehabilitation of people.....	42
Reynolds, E. The corporate sponsor and wildlife rehabilitation.....	47
Trendler, K. Common causes of wildlife casualties.....	50
Erasmus, A. Emergency treatment for wildlife patients.....	55
Trendler, K. Management and nursing of wildlife patients	64
Holcomb, J. Disasters affecting wildlife populations	68
Trendler, K. Hand-raising techniques for wildlife orphans.....	72
du Toit, J.G. Nutritional problems of wildlife in captivity	77
Fourie, N., Basson, A.T., Basson, K.M., Ferreira, G.C.H., van den Berg, H., Smith, J.C.S. and Labuschagne, L. Poisoning of wildlife in South Africa.....	84
Verdoorn, G.H. Release criteria for rehabilitated wild animals	89
Pettifer, H. The social behaviour and rehabilitation of carnivores.....	95
Whittsit, F. Social behaviour and rehabilitation of primates.....	101
Spence, J.M. Wildlife as companion animals	106
Burroughs, R.E.J. Transportation of wildlife for rehabilitation purposes	110
Holcomb, J. The ethics of wildlife rehabilitation.....	112
Erasmus, A. Drug dosages for treatment of wildlife	119
Lambrechts, N. Wound management and care	130
Kriek, N.P.J. The role of the pathologist in wildlife at rehabilitation centres.....	135
Meltzer, D.G.A. Zoonoses in wildlife rehabilitation.....	137
Burroughs, R.E.J. Preventative medicine for rehabilitation purposes	145