

VETFLASH!

Dear Member,

We anticipate that you might be apprehensive to travel and make certain decisions. To that effect, SAVA is offering assistance with regards to the following hotlines:

1. Held up at a checkpoint: Make sure that you have proper identification on your person, that your staff has a letter of authorisation to travel from your practice and that you carry the document received from SAVC confirming registration with you at all times. It might happen that some officials are uncertain as to your status. In that instance, please call our President-Elect, Dr Paul van der Merwe on 082 462 8438. Kindly use this only in extreme emergencies

2. Uncertain as to whether a particular procedure is deemed to be essential. Please make sure to read the SAVA documents published today that provides substantial guidance. In this instance, phone the SAVA Office at 012 346 1150. Please limit these calls to office hours. We will then direct you to the appropriate person to assist.

Save these numbers to your phone – you never know when you might need them!

Best regards,
Gert Steyn
Managing Director
